

2019 South Jersey Economic Development Summit Sponsorship Levels

Become a sponsor for the 14th Annual South Jersey Economic Development Summit on Tuesday, October 22, 2019, and meet with the leaders of Burlington, Camden Gloucester and Salem Counties at Sharrott Winery in Hammonton from 5:30 pm - 9 pm.

Freeholder Directors from all four counties will be there: Tom Pullion of Burlington County; Louis Cappelli, Jr. of Camden County; Robert M. Damminger of Gloucester County; and Benjamin H. Laury of Salem County as well as many other officials. More than 300 people will be there to network and learn about development projects and the growth of tourism in the region, while tasting South Jersey wines and craft beers paired with a variety of delicious light fare offered at different stations. Speakers will present videos about what's next for South Jersey and its expanding future of high tech, health care, manufacturing, and tourism.

As a sponsor, you can be at the center of it all at the Summit. The South Jersey Economic Development Summit will be marketed and advertised on multiple platforms in the three counties and the wider region. Time is short and sponsorship opportunities are limited.
