

WHERE THE WILD THINGS ARE

Explore Route 45

Take a deep breath of fresh air as you head down Route 45 where you'll find plenty of farmland and a sense of peace away from the urban hustle. This trip is marked with wineries, breweries, and distilleries ready to take you away from it all as well as wildlife, farm adventures, and antiquing to open your eyes and fill your spirit. You're sure to get a mix of memories as you take in the fruits of fine food and drink, expansive local wildlife, and historic sites as you wander through the Outer Coastal Plain AVA wine region.

and attend “Night of Lights” – a country holiday hayride for the whole family!

6 Mullica Hill Antiquing

mullicahillmerchants.wordpress.com/business-directory/antiques-specialty-shops

A true thrifter’s paradise, Mullica Hill is a must-visit destination for all things antique and vintage including home decor, furniture, jewelry, clothing, collectibles, and so much more.

7 Eight & Sand Beer Co.

(856) 537-1339
1003 N. Evergreen Avenue,
Woodbury, NJ 08096
eightsandsandbeer.com

A full production brewery featuring twenty taps. All beer is made on-site in the brewhouse, and can be enjoyed in the rustic-industrial style tasting room inspired by Eight & Sand’s “train” theme brand. Additionally, there’s a cozy beer garden ideal for sipping beers outdoors during the warmer months.

Please contact venues directly for updated hours and specific COVID-related safety precautions.

1 Hancock House

(856) 935-4373
3 Front Street, Hancocks Bridge, NJ 08038
state.nj.us/dep/parksandforests/historic/hancockhouse/hancockhouse-calendar-events.htm

Home to Mannington Meadows, Salem River has been cited by New Jersey Monthly as “the perfect destination to spot local wildlife” and “one of the top areas in the state for water-fowl diversity.” Enjoy a breath of fresh air and connect with nature on the viewing platform overlooking an expansive marsh along Mannington Creek.

The site of the Hancock Bridge Massacre of 1778, where Major John Graves Simcoe led 300 British soldiers and Queen’s Rangers to surround and surprise members of the local militia, along with Judge Hancock. The Hancock House can be found on the National Register of Historic Places and is a must-see for history buffs.

4 Wagonhouse Winery

(609) 780-8019
1401 NJ-45, Swedesboro, NJ 08085
wagonhousewinery.com

Inspired by the old wagonhouse on the Brown family farm, the journey started with some land leased from the family farm and has grown to 10 acres of grapes under cultivation, producing 7,000 cases of wine per year. The winery offers private events, monthly dinners and “The Barnyard Bistro” for visitors to enjoy.

2 Historic Salem City

(877) 658-6871
Market Street, Salem City, NJ
cityofsalemnj.gov

Located along the Salem River, Historic Salem is a community filled with a rich history, amazing cultural resources, impressive architecture, and several antique shops not to mention great casual dining from authentic Italian to soul food!

5 Creamy Acres Farm

(856) 223-1669
448 Lincoln Mill Road,
Mullica Hill, NJ 08062
creamyacres.com

Stroll through the Garden Center, visit the Jersey Fresh produce stand, and enjoy an educational tour of the dairy farm (complete with a complimentary ice cream treat). In the Fall, don’t miss the seasonal fun across the property including “Night of Terror,” made for the bravest of the bunch. Over the holidays, plan a day trip

3 Salem River Wildlife Management Area

(609) 984-0547
Route 45, Salem, NJ 08079
njfishandwildlife.com

RESTAURANTS ALONG THE WAY

Telford Inn
Salem Oak Diner
Grandma’s Cafe
Jewel’s Cafe
Shag’s Crab and Seafood
Seagraves Steak and Submarine Shop
Ella’s Mama Mia Family Restaurant
Blue Plate Mullica Hill

Discover more at visitsouthjersey.com