

FALL 2022

Alyssa Caltabiano: Director of Tourism and Cultural Affairs

This summer we enjoyed so much local fun: the Salem County Fair, car shows, wine festivals, and summer days at our local parks and beaches. While we are enjoying the final days of summer, we look forward to the upcoming fall season and all that it will bring.

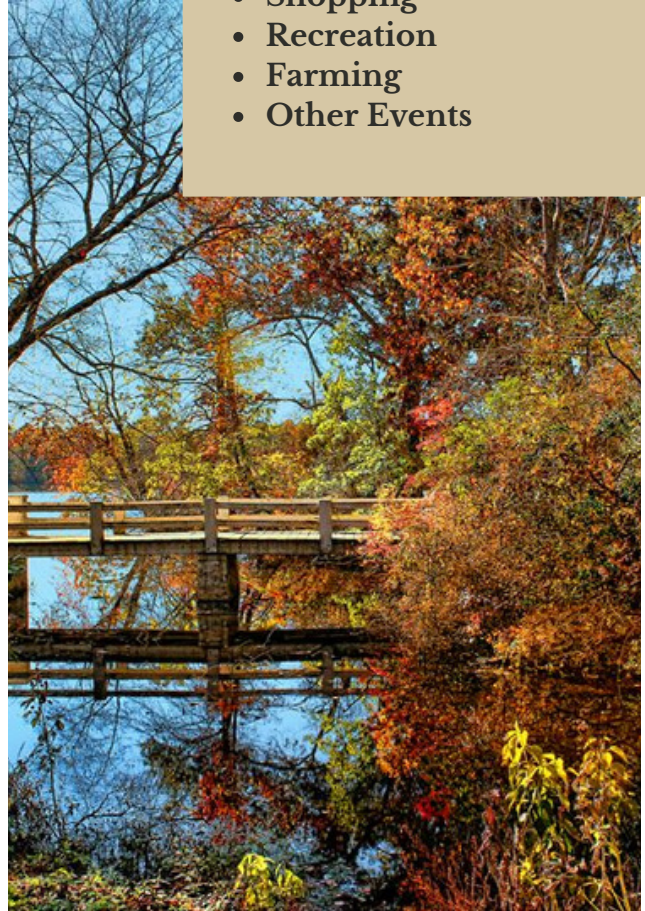

It always surprises me how early and quickly the leaves begin to change in late summer. The trees are already turning and the nights are getting cooler. In my opinion, there is nothing better than browsing our local antique stores with a warm beverage on a crisp fall day - and believe me, I am looking forward to it.

Vee's Tees Boutique

Our local small businesses here in Salem County have really felt the effects of the COVID-19 Pandemic and current inflation. Even so, they are doing all that they can to keep their prices affordable and continue serving our community. I feel inflation the least when I am shopping local. Please give our local businesses some extra love this season!

Farming

In August Sickler Circle View Farms documented their calving season with several new births. Buzby Farm is closing out the CSA season and many of our local farm stands are finishing up their seasons as well. While the produce season is coming to an end, Hidden Creek Farm, Sickler Circle View Farm, and Triple C Angus are still offering meat shares throughout the Fall and Winter season. In addition, our local flower farms are still offering events and pick your own flowers through the fall season!

ED for the season! Field and Flock will open in November for holiday shopping
