

Clayton Historic Preservation, Inc. presents

Richard W. Serfass, Ed. D

FREE Lecture

Why 2026 matters: The American Revolution, Its Veterans, and the Legacy
Around Us

April 8, 2026 6:30 P. M.

Clayton Municipal Building, 125 N. Delsea Drive, Clayton
NJ, 08312

The presentation will be a PowerPoint and Mr. Serfass will be dressed in 18th century military clothing. Together with some 18th century props, the outline of the presentation will include What's so important about 2026 ~ The Revolutionary War from beginning to end, and here in Gloucester County ~ The Sons of the American Revolution ~ The Revolutionary War in our area..... reenactments and historical significance ~ Revolutionary War ancestry.

The 1st in a 4-part series of FREE lectures presented by the Clayton Historic Preservation, Inc. to celebrate the 250th birthday of USA.

www.ClaytonHistoric.org/events

Facebook.com/ClaytonHistoric